

Hawaii State Ethics Commission State of Hawaii Resolution

Whereas, the Hawaii State Ethics Commission upholds the principle, affirmed by the people of Hawaii in Article XIV of the Hawaii State Constitution, that public officers and employees must exhibit the highest standards of ethical conduct; and

Whereas, the Hawaii State Ethics Commission proudly recognizes individuals who commit themselves to this principle and who make significant contributions to promote ethics in government; and

Whereas, Cassandra J.L. Abdul has demonstrated her personal commitment to ethics through public service and has made significant contributions as a proponent of the highest ethical standards in government; and

Whereas, the Hawaii State Ethics Commission proudly recognizes Cassandra J.L. Abdul for her dedicated public service to the State of Hawaii and for her contributions to ethics as a member of the Hawaii State Ethics Commission from July 11, 1994 to June 30, 2002, having served as Vice Chairperson in 1995 and 1997, and Chairperson in 1996 and 1997 to 2002; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved that the Hawaii State Ethics Commission hereby commends and congratulates Cassandra J.L. Abdul for her outstanding personal commitment to public service and to ethics in government; and

Be It Further Resolved that the Hawaii State Ethics Commission hereby extends to Cassandra J.L. Abdul its warmest Aloha, appreciation, and best wishes.

Dated: Honolulu, Hawaii, August 21, 2002.

Hawaii State Ethics Commission

Ronald R. Yoshida, Chairperson

Dawn Suyenaga, Vice Chairperson

Nadine Y. Ando, Commissioner

Eloise Lee, Commissioner

Carl Morton, M.D., Commissioner